CHICAGO March 19.—Forecasts for rains and favorable weather for the crop. combined with a relatively slow demand for the cash article, offset reports of green bug information in the southwest and were responsible for a generally very bearish sentiment in wheat today. Commission houses were rather general sellers, but the buying was scattered. The market started weak but was easily influenced and railled quickly. Opening quotations which were ½ to 1½c lower with March $1.54 and May $1.44 to 1.45, were followed by further declines and then a moderate advance.

Corn reflected the action of wheat, trade being light. After starting unchanged to ½c lower with May at 66 to $74c, the market railled slightly and held within a narrow range.

Oats were in sympathy with cereals, May unchanged to ½c lower, with May 41½ to 41%c, and hovering about that figure.

Communities of County Making, Arrangements for Season's Schedule

Baseball promises to be one of the main recreational activities of the local farm bureaus in Weber County. Reports from W. P. Thomas, county agricultural agent indicate that no less than fifteen towns in the county have made arrangements for the financing and supporting of baseball teams this summer.

Committees in twelve towns, Clinton, Willard, Hooper, Marriott, Farr West, Plain City, Slaterville, Pleasant View, North Ogden, Eden, Huntsville and South Weber, have been appointed to complete arrangements for pointed to complete arrangements for tearns, while committees will be ap-pointed to complete during the com-ing week at Kanesville, Taylor and ing week at Kanesville, Taylor and Liberty.

A meeting of committeemen and team captains will be held-in the near future at the farm bureau offices in the federal building, for the purpose of arranging a schedule for the teams.

Indications are that there will be three distinct divisions in the league, this arrangement being necessary because of the number of teams, and because some of the towns have an included intention of entering two teams in the farm bureau league.

At the meeting of the baseball committeemen awards for the victorious teams will be arranged.

The farm bureau baseball league last year had a successful season and each team was enthusiastically supcach team was enthusiastically sup-ported by its rown members. The games were witnessed by thousands of people, and the brand of sport ex-nibited was clean and wholesome. In the opinion of farm bureau officials, the baseball league has much influ-ence in arousing community smilt and cace in arousing community spirit and promoting good natured rivalry be-tween the various communities of the
